WELCOME

A retreat venue on the lake

La Maison VEDA is an intimate retreat venue on the shores of Koggala Lake, in the south of Sri Lanka. Nestled in lush jungle, this experience house was designed as a space of silence, reconnection and mindful presence.

Much more than a hotel or a retreat centre: a human-scale home for small groups seeking authenticity, nature and deep well-being.

THE PLACE AT A GLANCE

The essentials

- South Sri Lanka — 2 h 15 from Colombo airport, 25 min from Galle, 5 min from Habaraduwa (shops, cafés, market, bank)
- On the shores of Koggala Lake, with private lake access from the garden
- Two authentic villas: the Lake Loft and the Lake House — 7 beds
- A panoramic rooftop yoga shala facing the lake
- Partner accommodation steps away: Tothupola chalets (with pool) and Jungle Breeze villas — up to 16 beds in total
- A daily on-site contact, in French and English

THE “LA MAISON VEDA” BASE

Mandatory for any retreat

Full privatisation of the two villas and the shala. Capacity: 7 beds. Minimum stay: 5 nights. Extensions are only available once the base is booked.

The Lake Loft

A bright, welcoming 60 m² loft-style apartment.

Open space dividable into 3 curtained sleeping areas

1 double bed + 3 single beds · 1 bathroom · air conditioning

Fully equipped kitchen · large terrace over the tropical garden

The yoga studio sits on its rooftop

A “chic dormitory” feel, balancing community and privacy.

The Lake House

A charming traditional Sri Lankan clay-wall house, right on the lakefront.

1 large bedroom with a double bed + 1 adjoining room with 2 single beds

1 bathroom · fully equipped kitchen

Large terrace facing the sunrise over the lake

A magical, intimate and warm space.

The Yoga Shala

Perched on the Loft's rooftop, with breathtaking views over Koggala Lake and its fishermen.

70 m², bright, comfortably seats up to 15 practitioners

17 mats and blocks provided

Bathroom with shower and toilet

Birdsong and monkeys in the trees: a full immersion in nature.

PARTNER ACCOMMODATION

Up to 16 beds in total

Tothupola chalets — +4 beds

Direct access through a garden gate. Two wooden chalets built by Sri Lankan artisans.

1 double + 1 single bed per chalet · private bathroom · air conditioning

Garden pool with lake view (access reserved for Tothupola guests)

Jungle Breeze villas

A 1-minute walk away, a tastefully renovated lakeside property.

5 double rooms, each with a private terrace or balcony

Including a floating apartment on catamaran hulls and a traditional earth house

On-site kitchen available

Partner accommodation is subject to their own availability.

DINING

Full board or your own chef

Full board — €30 / person / day. Three vegetarian meals a day, Sri Lankan, Ayurvedic and French-inspired cuisine, softened spices, fresh local produce. Water, tea, infusions and fruit available all day.

Or bring your own chef. The property has two fully equipped kitchens and a dedicated lakeside dining space for the group.

À LA CARTE EXPERIENCES

You design your retreat

ORGANISING, TOGETHER

How it works

1. You choose your dates.
2. Together we define the structure of your retreat.
3. You open registrations to your students.
4. I organise all the local logistics.
5. You teach with complete peace of mind.

Each retreat is co-created to respect your approach and the spirit of the place. A photo media kit is provided for your own communication.

ABOUT

Aurélie Dutrey

Aurélie founded her first yoga centre, La Maison VEDA France (Saint-Simon, Charente), in 2022, before extending this vision to Sri Lanka. Trained in Ayurveda in India, a yoga teacher and long-term traveller, she built La Maison VEDA on a deep knowledge of the country and a trusted local network.

Her role: making sure every stay flows smoothly, remains deeply human and sincere — without over-promising or staging.

THE SPIRIT OF LA MAISON VEDA

You are at home here

Authenticity over quantity.

Depth over spectacle.

Human connection over mass tourism.
